INTERNATIONAL YACHT TRAINING COURSE PROGRESSION

Recreational Certificates 'International Boating & Sailing Passport'

Introduction to Yachting & International Crew Certificate VHF Radio Operator Certificate (this certificate is recognised professionally as well) International Watchkeeper/Flotilla Skipper Certificate International Certificate of Competency - ICC (required for operators of most vessels on inland & coastal waters in a large part of the European Union - awarded after completion of the ICC course, International Flotilla Skipper, Personal Watercraft Operations, Small Powerboat & Ribmaster or the following International Bareboat Skipper Certificate Yachtmaster Coastal Yachtmaster Offshore Yachtmaster Ocean

IYT Worldwide offers additional recreational courses like Weather Master, Navigation Master, Power Boat Master and Personal Watercraft Operations, for those who wish to increase their knowledge in specific areas and obtain a recreational certificate.

Professional Certificates Deck

(mandatory)
S.T.C.W. Basic Training
(Standards of Training & Certification for Watchkeeping)

4 basic safety training modules:

- 2 days STCW Basic Fire Fighting
- 1.5 days STCW Basic Sea Survival
- 1 day STCW Basic First Aid
- .1/2 day STCW Social Responsibilites

(mandatory) VHF Radio Operator

(optional) Small Powerboat & RIB Master

> (optional) Megayacht Deck Crew

this course includes Small Powerboat & RIB Master

(optional) IYT Worldwide MOY Coastal/ Mate 200qt

5 days liveaboard theory and practical course, power or sail Minimum entry requirements:

- 25 days and 800 miles logged including 2 days as watchleader/captain & 12 hrs underway on watch at night.
- verification of yachting experience signed by the skipper/owner of the yacht
- a valid medical fitness certificate

IYT Worldwide MOY 200gt Limited (previously named "Offshore"

6 day theory and 5 day liveaboard practical course, power or sail (previously named "Offshore")

Minimum entry requirements:

- 50 days logged on a yacht at sea as active crew member.
- 3,000 miles logged on a yacht while cruising at sea, (genuine cruises or passages, not short day trips) At least 2,000 miles must have been completed on coastal voyages and not ocean crossings.
- 30 hours on watch at night underway as an active crew member. 6 hours of this must have been night time experience. The candidate must have been acting as the watchleader/captain.
- a valid medical fitness certificate

IYT Master Of Yachts 200gt Unlimited (previously named "Ocean")

6 day theory course including celestial navigation, meteorology & passage planning.

This course requires that real sights be taken by all candidates and reduced as a part of the assessment. A 2 hour passage plan is prepared under exam conditions.

Candidates must hold an IYT Worldwide Master of Yachts Limited certificate and all S.T.C.W. certificates.

Professional Certficates Interior

(mandatory)
S.T.C.W. Basic Training
(Standards of Training & Certification for Watchkeeping)

4 basic safety training modules: - 2 days STCW Basic Fire Fighting - 1.5 days STCW Basic Sea Survival - 1 day STCW Basic First Aid - .1/2 day STCW Social Responsibilites (optional) VHF Radio Operator (optional) Small Powerboat & RIB Master Professional Superyacht Hospitality Steward/Stewardess Training Supervacht Chef

Professionals can continue their education and career in yachting by doing courses necessary for Officer of the Watch, Master 500-3000gt and Chief Mate.